September 30* to harvest
*Associated with mechanical or frost damage

Botrytis blight

- Stems and leaves have a water soaked appearance at first, then turn dark.
- Lesions are covered with masses of fuzzy gray or grayish-brown spores.
- Occasionally, leaves have light brown spots with grayish spores in August or September (top right).