Chemical injury

- Spots may be surrounded by large yellow or dead areas.
- Spots are usually clustered on leaf margins and in the upper canopy.
- Residues may be clearly associated with spots. Spores are never present on spots.
- Heavy spotting before July 15 is usually due to chemical injury or irregular leaf spot.

June 1 to harvest