Sclerotia

Stem rot

July 15 to harvest

- Stem, peg, and pod rot often is most visible after digging.
- Rotted pegs and pods are the color of a brown paper bag.
- Pegs are shredded and pods are thin and brittle. Coarse strands of fungus may be present.
- Tan to brown sclerotia are round and look like mustard seed.