

Brown-purple injury on GA-09B leaf following prothioconazole appl. Below image taken 6 days later. Can look alarming, but not disease. Black-brown spore tufts not present on lesion underside.

LLS close-up with brown black spore tufts

False white mold, laterals clean beneath growth

White mold (below),
peanut tissue necrotic beneath growth

