

Small amount of “hopperburn” from leafhopper feeding injury

White-margined burrower bug adult and nymph
(not a pest)

Minor amount of feeding from caterpillars (worms not observed here)

Leaf scorch (large necrotic region) and pepper spot (small black dots) are caused by the same fungus, typically not economically important